Account Updates

From the MyProfile screen you can make changes to your:

1. Account Information, including your username* and password
2. Preferences, including contact method or Home Page
3. Personal Information, including contact information and email address where notifications are sent

*Note: changing the username does not change the email address that will receive notifications. To change the email address that receives notifications, see the section entitled “Change Personal Information”
Account Updates: Helpful Tips

1. Changing the Username does not change the email address that will receive notifications.
2. To change the email address that receives notifications, update the Email Address located in the Personal Information Section.
3. Verify that the TimeZone selected in the Personal Information section is set to Pacific Time.

✓ SANDAG uses Pacific Time in its solicitation deadlines and selecting a different Time Zone could lead to confusion.
