You’re Invited!
To learn about Job Order Contracting Opportunities

You are invited to attend an informational workshop to learn about the Job Order Contracting (JOC) program at the San Diego Association of Governments. SANDAG is holding this workshop in advance of going out to bid for JOC contractors. The workshop will cover the following topics:

- What is JOC and how does it work?
- Why should contractors be interested?
- What are JOC’s benefits for contractors?
- Why does SANDAG use JOC?
- What types of projects are/will be implemented through JOC?

Did you know?
SANDAG has awarded six JOC contracts in the past five years.
- A total of 107 job orders worth $65 million have been issued under these contracts.
- This year, SANDAG plans to release five JOC invitations for bid, with an anticipated total value of $31.5 million, for the following categories of work:
  » General Electrical, Traffic Signals & Communication Construction Services
  » General Building & Facilities Construction Services
  » Landscaping, Irrigation & Mitigation Services
  » Railroad Signals, Overhead Catenary Systems & Track Work Construction Services
