As part of the Psychiatric Emergency Response Team (PERT) program, a mental health crisis intervention team that includes a licensed mental health professional and a law enforcement officer/deputy respond to mental health-related emergencies that are brought to law enforcement’s attention. The goal is to safely and effectively de-escalate crisis situations and provide appropriate referrals when necessary and offer the least restrictive level of care thus avoiding unnecessary hospitalizations and incarcerations. An overview of PERT and how it is being utilized across our region will be provided.

9. UPCOMING MEETINGS

REPORTS

4. REPORT FROM THE SAN DIEGO COUNTY FIRE CHIEFS ASSOCIATION (INFORMATION)

Chief Dave Hanneman, San Diego County Fire Chiefs Association, reported on the July 5, 2012, meeting of the San Diego County Fire Chiefs Association.

Action: This item was presented for information.

5. SUBSTANCE USE TRENDS AMONG THE ARRESTEE POPULATION (INFORMATION)

As part of an on-going locally supported effort, data are collected from arrestees regarding their drug use histories and other risky behaviors. Recently compiled information from both juveniles and adults through 2011 was presented.

Dr. Cynthia Burke, Division Director, Applied Policy Research/Criminal Justice Research, presented this item.

Action: This item was presented for information.
6. ARJIS LICENSE PLATE READER PROJECT (INFORMATION)

ARJIS is partnering with several of the ARJIS member agencies and the Urban Area Security Initiative on the regional License Plate Reader (LPR) project. ARJIS has developed the applications to provide real-time access to LPR data being captured throughout the County. Representatives from participating agencies provided an overview of the accomplishments of their specific agencies, the policies for use and retention of LPR data, and how these data have assisted in solving several crimes.

Executive Director Pamela Scanlon (ARJIS), Assistant Chief Cory Moles (Escondido Police Department), and Captain David Myers (San Diego Sheriff’s Department) presented this item.

Action: This item was presented for information.

7. 2-1-1 SAN DIEGO (INFORMATION)

2-1-1 San Diego is a resource and information hub that connects people with community, health, and disaster services through a free, 24/7 stigma-free confidential phone service and searchable online database. An overview was provided of 2-1-1, including the history of the agency, the current service delivery system, including specialty programs, the data and technology infrastructure, and upcoming goals and priorities.

Chief Operating Officer Bill York (2-1-1 San Diego) presented this item.

Action: This item was presented for information.

8. UPCOMING MEETINGS

The next meeting of the Public Safety Committee is scheduled for Friday, September 21, 2012.

Be On the Look Out!

- “BOLOs” have been used by law enforcement for centuries
- Used to identify and find criminals
Before eAlerts

- Be On the look Out (BOLO) notifications
  - Discussed at line-ups and posted on bulletin board at police stations
  - Faxed and mailed
  - Word of mouth/personal connections
- Administrative messages in vehicles
- Photos were rare

eAlerts: Immediate Notifications!
Easy Access

- Officers self-subscribe to email distribution lists
  - Users subscribe to one or many lists of interest
- Must have ARJIS account to participate
- When subscribed, users can send/receive emails from selected lists

Targeted Regional Lists

- Robbery
- East County Gang
- East County Investigator
- Fraud
- North County Crime
- North County Gang
- Parolee at Large
- Property Crime
- Sex Crime
- South County Crime
- South County Gang
Benefits: Time Savings

- Timely automated delivery to email inbox
  - No need to log onto various applications
  - Photos assist in positive identification – no need to return to station

“I’ve had cases of officers receiving ARJIS notifications in their patrol cars, then seeing our wanted subjects within minutes and arresting them.”

- Parole Agent, California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation

“Within two minutes, I received numerous responses from SDSO deputies with his identity and photos. It was probably the quickest case we’ve ever solved and led to the identification of several other suspects we were looking for!”

- Crime Analyst, Carlsbad Police Department

Quick and Easy Notifications

- Sex offenders are cutting off their GPS units – notifications distributed within minutes
- BOLOs can be created on the fly, from office and the field

“As a supervisor in a unit that monitors high risk sex offenders using GPS technology, eAlert has been instrumental in getting the word out to L/E agencies when one of our offenders forcibly removes his GPS tracker and goes on the run.”

- Parole Agent, California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation
Benefits: Regional Collaboration

- Promotes collaboration among local, state and federal agencies
- Enhances public and officer safety by facilitating interagency communication
- Cost savings – centralized maintenance

“Never before have detectives, federal agents, patrol cops, and probation/parole had the means to communicate so quickly. These ‘blasts’ are invaluable and we appreciate all the work your organization put into it to keeping it going.”

– Lieutenant, San Diego Sheriff’s Department

211 Robbery BOLOs

- Apple Store Homicide
- No Boundaries Bandit
- Dare Me Bandit
BOLO Library

- Previously no effective way to store and search on BOLOs
- All BOLOs saved in library
- Allows Google-like search of archived BOLOs
- Assists in identifying crime trends and patterns

Expansion

- New “southwesternstates” distribution list implemented
- Users from Orange County, Los Angeles, Arizona, Oregon, Colorado, etc.
- Geo-tool in design phase
  - “Send BOLO to all agencies on Highway 8 between San Diego and Phoenix”
Multi-State/Region Success!

- 12 year old girl kidnapped from Montana
- Officers discover she met a 27 year old man on the Internet through her Facebook page
- BOLO email alert sent to the southwestern region of the U.S.
- Los Angeles Sheriff receives BOLO, searches systems, and gets; 1) hits on addresses in Escondido; 2) booking and drivers license photo and 3) license plate hits on state border crossings
- Officers located both the suspect and girl on the California/Nevada border less than 24 hours after abduction
Psychiatric Emergency Response Team

HISTORY OF PERT

- Early 1990s, several use-of-force situations involving individuals with mental illness
- The situations were cleared through the involved Departments and San Diego County District Attorney’s Office, but law enforcement and the community sought more effective interventions
- Family members, individuals with mental illness, and the media questioned law enforcement tactics
TASK FORCE

- Developed in 1993
- Members:
  - Mental Health Professionals
  - Law Enforcement
  - Family Members of Individuals with Mental Illness
  - Individuals with Mental Illness

RECOMMENDATIONS

- County of San Diego HHSA & MHSA Act
- Law Enforcement-Countywide
- Behavioral Health Agencies and Providers-Countywide

THE TEAM

- Each team pairs a mental health clinician with an officer or deputy
- Each contribute particular skills and expertise
- Team members participate in preparatory and ongoing specialized training
Purpose

The mission of the PERT program is to provide effective and compassionate crisis intervention to individuals living with mental illness in the community who come into contact with law enforcement officers/deputies and provide linkage to appropriate levels of service.

PERT GOALS

- Prevent unnecessary incarceration and/or hospitalization of mentally ill individuals
- Provide alternative care in the least restrictive environment
- Provide a coordinated and comprehensive system-wide approach
- Allow police patrol units to return to service sooner
ACCESSING A PERT TEAM

• Community
  • Local law enforcement emergency or non-emergency line
  • Request a PERT trained officer/deputy if PERT team is unavailable

• Law Enforcement
  • Request through dispatch
