Solving problems that matter

Who are you?

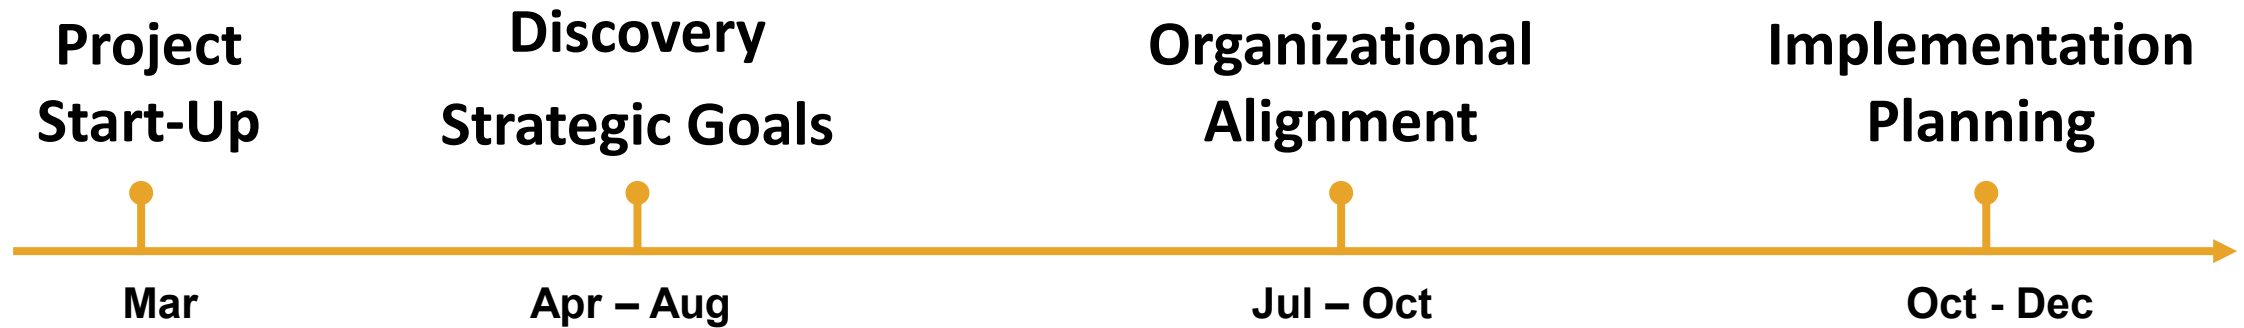

Where are you going?

How will you get there?

SANDAG is developing a multi-year plan to define the agency's strategic priorities and create a roadmap for building internal capacity necessary for delivering programs, projects, and initiatives. Input from a broad range of stakeholders is being gathered during the early phase of this effort.

Distinct from the RTP, the SANDAG Strategic Plan focuses on the Agency's management and operations.

Questions for discussion

1. What are the priorities for your work with SANDAG?
2. What does success look like?
3. What is effective about your collaboration with SANDAG and what could be improved?
4. What do you think SANDAG should focus on as part of its multi-year planning initiative?
